January 2011.

The Garter Company is a family run business, catering for the discerning public, offering handcrafted garters for all occasions.

Each garter is packaged in it's own individual gift box, to store as a keepsake, or the perfect gift for the loved one in your life.

Delivery, packing and postage are all included in the price (UK only). Any dissatisfaction with the garter, a full refund is given.

The designs contained within this brochure can be personalised or customised. If there is a particular design you wish to commission, please contact the company directly, we will be happy to help. A wide selection of ribbon, lace and accessories are available. Previously commissioned garters have included designs for club functions, specific family tartan and many more.
